CODE OF CONDUCT

WACFA CODE OF CONDUCT

The behaviour of players, their parents, spectators, coaches, officials and administrators is absolutely critical in ensuring that our players enjoy an appropriate environment for playing football.

Below are a series of codes of behaviour based on the Code of Conduct guidelines from the Australian Sports Commission and the Football Federation of Australia. All people involved in football in our association, and in particular OSSF, must be aware of and abide by these codes.

CODE OF BEHAVIOUR: PLAYERS

- Play by the rules.
- Never argue with an official. If you disagree, have your captain, coach or manager approach the official during a break or after the competition.
- Control your temper. Verbal abuse of officials, sledging other players or deliberately distracting or provoking an opponent is not acceptable or permitted behaviours in any sport.
- Work equally hard for yourself and/or your team. Your team's performance will benefit and so will you.
- Be a good sport. Applaud all good plays whether they are made by your team or the opposition.
- Treat all participants in your sport as you like to be treated. Do not bully or take unfair advantage of another competitor.
- Cooperate with your coach, team-mates and opponents. Without them, there would be no competition.
- Participate for your own enjoyment and benefit, not just to please your parents and coaches.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
- Demonstrate respect for WACFA, its Officials, and all other participants by ensuring that the game of football and the operation of the Association are not brought into disrepute.
- Refrain from public displays of dissent and denigration of WACFA, its Officials, and all other participants, especially when using any form of social media.

CODE OF BEHAVIOUR: COACHES

- Remember that young people participate for pleasure, and winning is only part of the fun.
- Never ridicule or yell at a young player for making a mistake or not coming first.
- Be reasonable in your demands on players' time, energy and enthusiasm.
- Operate within the rules and spirit of your sport and teach your players to do the same.
- Ensure that the time players spend with you is a positive experience. All young people are deserving of equal attention and opportunities.
- Avoid overplaying the talented players; the "just average" players also need and deserve equal playing time.
- Ensure that equipment and facilities meet safety standards and are appropriate to the age and ability of all players.
- Never argue with an official or publicly show dissent. If you disagree with a decision made by a Match Official, approach the official during a break or after the fixture.
- Display control, respect and professionalism to all involved with the sport. This includes opponents, coaches, officials, administrators, the media, parents and spectators. Encourage players to do the same.
- Show concern and caution towards sick and injured players. Follow the advice of a physician when determining whether an injured player is ready to recommence training or competition.
- Obtain appropriate qualifications and keep up to date with the latest coaching practices and the principles of growth and development of young people.
- Any physical contact with a young person should be appropriate to the situation and necessary for the player's skill development.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every young person regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
- Demonstrate respect for WACFA, its Officials, and all other participants by ensuring that the game of football and the operation of the Association are not brought into disrepute.
- Refrain from public displays of dissent and denigration of WACFA, its Officials, and all other participants, especially when using any form of social media.

CODE OF BEHAVIOUR: PARENTS

- Remember that children participate in sport for their enjoyment, not your own.
- Encourage children to participate; do not force them.
- Focus on your child's efforts and performance rather than whether they win or lose.
- Encourage children to play according to the rules and to settle disagreements without resorting to hostility or violence.
- Never ridicule or yell at a child for making a mistake or losing a competition. Remember that children learn best by example.
- Appreciate good performance and skilful plays by all participants.
- Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abuse from sporting activities.
- Respect decisions made by the Match Officials and teach children to do likewise.

- Show appreciation for volunteer coaches, officials and administrators; without them, your child could not participate in the sport.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every young person regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
- Demonstrate respect for WACFA, its Officials, and all other participants by ensuring that the game of football and the operation of the Association are not brought into disrepute.
- Refrain from public displays of dissent and denigration of WACFA, its Officials, and all other participants, especially when using any form of social media.

- Compliment and encourage all participants.
- Be consistent, objective and courteous when making decisions.
- Condemn unsporting behaviour and promote respect for all opponents.
- Emphasise the spirit of the game rather than the errors.
- Encourage and promote rule changes that will make participation more enjoyable.
- Be a good sport yourself. Actions speak louder than words.
- Keep up to date with the latest trends in officiating and the principles of growth and development of young people.
- Remember, you set an example. Your behaviour and comments should be positive and supportive at all times.
- Place the safety and welfare of the participants above all else.

- Involve people in planning, leadership, evaluation and decision-making related to the activity.
- Give all young people equal opportunities to participate.
- Create pathways for young people to participate in sport, not just as a player but as a coach, referee, administrator etc.
- Ensure that rules, equipment, length of games and training schedules are modified to suit the age, ability and maturity level of all players, particularly young players.
- Provide quality supervision and instruction for junior players.
- Remember that young people participate for their enjoyment and benefit. Do not overemphasise awards.
- Help coaches and match officials highlight appropriate behaviour and skill development, and help improve the standards of coaching and officiating.

- Ensure that everyone involved in sport emphasises fair play, rather than winning at all costs.
- Give a Code of Behaviour sheet to spectators, officials, parents, coaches, players and the media, and encourage all persons involved in the sport to follow the Code.
- Remember, you set an example. Your behaviour and comments should be positive and supportive at all times.
- Make it clear that abusing people in any way is unacceptable and will result in disciplinary action.
